

An evening with Sharon G. Flake

Lovin' Literature, Learning & Life!

Join EMID students, staff, members of the Lovin' the Skin I'm In sisterhood, and the Twin Cities community as we welcome nationally renowned, award-winning young adult author Sharon G. Flake for a special evening of hoping, dreaming, believing — and celebrating! As the author of novels such as The Skin I'm In, Money Hungry, BANG, You Don't Even Know Me, and PINNED, Sharon G. Flake will talk about hope in hard places and about young people who encounter challenges but through perseverance, the help of good friends, and the love of family and caring adults learn just how wonderfully gifted, determined, and capable they are.
